The Lessons

FIRST READING: Sirach 15:15-20

The people sit.

A Reading from Ecclesiasticus, or the Wisdom of Jesus Son of Sirach.

¹⁵If you choose, you can keep the commandments, and to act faithfully is a matter of your own choice.

¹⁶He has placed before you fire and water;
stretch out your hand for whichever you choose.

¹⁷Before each person are life and death, and whichever one chooses will be given.

¹⁸For great is the wisdom of the Lord;
he is mighty in power and sees everything;

¹⁹his eyes are on those who fear him,
and he knows every human action.

²⁰He has not commanded anyone to be wicked, and he has not given anyone permission to sin.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

³¹“It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ ³²But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

³³“Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.’ ³⁴But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, ³⁵or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. ³⁶And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. ³⁷Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’; anything more than this comes from the evil one.”

The Priest says

THANKSGIVING OVER THE WATER

The Priest blesses the water, first saying

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest

We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Priest touches the water

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

THE BAPTISM

Each candidate is presented by name to the Priest who then pours water upon the candidate, saying N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

When this action has been completed for all candidates, the Priest, at a place in full sight of the congregation, prays over them, saying

Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Then the Priest places a hand on the person's head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross and saying N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Or this action may be done immediately after the administration of the water and before the preceding prayer.

WELCOME THE NEWLY BAPTIZED

When all have been baptized, the Priest says
Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Priest and People

We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

THE PEACE

The Peace is now exchanged

Priest The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Prayer for Birthdays

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up when they fall; and in their hearts may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ Our Lord. OFFERTORY ANTHEM Blessed are those that be undefiled

(sung by the Schola)

Blessed are those that be undefiled in the way, and walk in the law of the Lord.
Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
and seek him with their whole heart.
For they that do no wickedness
walk in his ways.
Thou hast chargèd us, O Lord,
that we shall diligently keep thy commandements.
O that our ways were made so direct that we might keep thy statutes.
So shall we not be confounded while we have respect unto all thy commandements.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning is now
and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

PRESENTATION HYMN

Hymn 440

Blessed Jesus, at thy word

LIEBSTER JESU

The Great Thanksgiving

The People remain standing.

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Facing the Holy Table, the Priest proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, God Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS S 125 Holy, holy, holy (Proulx)

Priest and People

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People stand or kneel.

The Priest continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The Priest continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with [_____ and] all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Priest

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION

The Priest says

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

DISTRIBUTION

The ministers receive the Sacrament in both kinds, and then immediately deliver it to the people.

Priest

This is Christ's Banquet. It is made ready for those who love God, and for those who want to love God more. So, come, you who have much faith and you who have little, you who have been here often, and you who have not been here long. You who have tried to follow Jesus, and you who have failed. Come, because it is Christ who invites you.

During Communion, all are welcome – even encouraged! – to come forward to receive the holy food of new and everlasting life in Jesus Christ. Simply put your hands out (one on top of the other), and the bread will be placed in your hand. (If needed, gluten-free wafers are available.)

You may then consume the wafer (if you do not wish to have it intincted in the wine) or leave the wafer on your palm and the chalice bearer will dip it for you into the wine and place it in your hand. If you aren't sure, or if you'd rather not receive the actual Sacrament, come up and cross your arms across your chest to receive a blessing. You may also cross your arms over your chest or touch the bottom of the chalice if you wish not to receive wine. Finally, if you'd like to receive Communion but mobility is an issue, alert an usher and Communion will be brought to you.

COMMUNION HYMN

All are invited to sing

With you, O Lord, is life in all its full - ness, and in your light we shall see true light. With you, O Lord, is life in all its fullness, and in your light we shall see true light.

After Communion, the Priest says
 Let us pray.

Priest and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
 in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
 with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

The Priest blesses the people.

LENTEN BOOK STUDY

Announcing the book selection for our 2023 Lenten Book Study –Plenty Good Room, by Marilyn E. Thornton with Lewis V. Baldwin. Our group will begin meeting on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. beginning February 28 and continuing through April 4, 2023. We will meet in person at the church, but our exact location inside the church is TBD. This unique short-term Bible study combines an in-depth look at Scripture, American history and the music and lyrics of six African American spirituals designed to accompany our journey through the Lenten season. During our six sessions, we will take time to reflect on the stories, on Bible readings, and on the music of the spirituals themselves as together we deepen our knowledge and understanding of the past and “hear the eternal truths of sacred word through song!”

Please order the book as soon as possible either through Cokesbury or Amazon, or through your favorite bookseller. And please, if possible, come on the 28th having read Lesson One.

TURKEY-SYRIA EARTHQUAKE RESPONSE

Earlier this week, a deadly 7.8-magnitude earthquake struck along the border between Turkey and Syria, killing over 12,000 people and causing widespread damage across the region. Although this disaster just happened, Episcopal Relief & Development is already working with partners to provide support. Please join ERD in this relief effort by making a donation at www.episcopalrelief.org.

A MISSION BEGINS

On February 24, 1980, forty-two Episcopalians from the Westlake Village, Agoura area signed and submitted a letter to The Right Rev. Robert Claflin Rusack - then Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles - applying for permission to organize as a mission and declaring their readiness to undertake the duties and obligations implied. Thanks to Tony Miller and Joy Humphrey, this document has been restored, framed, and protected from future damage. It is now hanging in the Founders' Hall for everyone to see. Check it out!

ISAIAH 58:1A

Last Sunday's lesson included these lines from Isaiah: Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet!

Stephanie Harbourne shared the February 6 meditation from the Forward Day by Day booklet (highlighted in the January 25 edition of Epiphany Connections under Spiritual Resources) thinking that it could support our new Prayers of Thanksgiving feature. It surely does! Thank you, Stephanie!

"I have always kept good news quiet. I didn't tell anyone where I was applying to college or if I was a finalist in a contest. I did this because I didn't want to have to talk to people if it didn't work out. I'm still like this. I'm not telling anyone about these devotions until after they have been submitted.

I think it's because I don't want to hear the "I'm sorry's or feel like others are pitying me. Even if I'm disappointed, I can still be happy for others. I can pray, "thy will be done," and know God had a different plan for me.

Isaiah tells us to shout out, to not hold back, to lift our voices like a trumpet. There will always be those people who prefer to keep everything private, and I respect them, but I am trying to live into Isaiah's call. Good news is a good thing. Sad news? Well, there is no denying it happens, but something good is coming along. If something happens, tell it. Shout it. Own it. Be grateful! We need to know that others are happy, to share in their joy, and to know that we too will have good news to trumpet."

A SERVICE IN THE STYLE OF TAIZE

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 7:00 PM

In the 1940s, a monastic community in Taizé, France, created a new form of prayer service that was designed to be ecumenical and non-denominational.

Brief, easy songs are repeated to create a meditative atmosphere, and are interspersed with readings and silence to encourage contemplation. Led by the Parish Choir, this quiet, reflective service is patterned on the worship practices at Taizé. This service offers worshipers the opportunity to enter into a prayerful experience of God.

To access the bulletin from either your tablet or your cell phone please scan the QR code on the left.
